

Art Guild of Orange Park Membership Meeting March 7 2023

The meeting was called to order at 6:30 by Phyl Renninger, President

The minutes from last month's meeting in February were approved after a motion by Deborah, seconded by Beth.

Membership chair, Sandy Jones reported there are 119 paid members. New members present tonight were Christine Levine and Pam Richards.

Eddie Dozza, treasurer reported we have $. in the treasury

Announcements

- Wendy Sullivan will be assisting Linda Hawkins with the Constant Contact.
- Kim Russel will be taking over the Community Service committee as Roger Houseman has resigned.
- Phyl announced that we have "paint your own name tags" on sale for $5.00. Everyone is encouraged to paint their own.
- The Summer Project will be "Celebrating 50 years of Style". There is a handout and sign-up sheet.
- We are looking at a new meeting location in Fox Valley that will be less expensive than the Lions Club. More info coming soon. Also, the Clark Park Cottage should be available for us to use as an office and gallery in about 1 year.
- Dee Roberts announced the 2023 Club Continental Art and Garden Show May 16 5:30 to 7:30. Take in is at 9 AM and 2 paintings per artist. Art should pertain to the Club Continental, river, or gardens. 10% of sale goes to the guild. Presale tickets are $8.00; $10 at the door.
- Beth Hazlip announced that Santioni Restaurant will have one of our artists featured every Three months. Wiener's gallery is presenting Workshop Works; take in March 30. A flyer is available for those interested.
- Deborah Broach announced there will be two field trips for members. March 28 to Savannah. Carpool from Winn Dixie at 8 AM. And April 25 to the Cummer Museum.
- Orange Park Town Hall Exhibit features Jan Racer starting tomorrow.
- Nancy Page announced the Courtenay Hunt Scholarship will begin advertising for high school senior now. We need art supplies for a gift bag for the scholarship applicants. Please donate.
- The Clay Today will begin to publish articles from the Art Guild.
- Tim Stahlheber announced a paint the records project for the Music and Art in Clay County. Tim has records available tonight for painting.
- Next month there will be presentation from SOMA.
- Please use website for detailed information on all projects and exhibits.

Business meeting adjourned at 7:15.

Presentation followed by Tiffany Manning who will do a workshop on March 25 on Acrylic Abstracts.